

More Gifts for Retarded Class

More contributions to the Carroll County Council for Retarded Children for maintenance of the class being conducted here have been reported.

According to Mrs. Harold Wynn, treasurer, recent contributions include:

Malvern Lions Club, $25. Mt. Olivet Church of Christ, Sherrodsville Grange and the New Harrisburg boys and girls 4-H club, each $15. In memory of the late Eva Ray, Center Twp. neighbors, $10.

Sherrodsville Bethesda Lutheran Sunday School, WSCS of Dellroy Methodist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McCreery of Mineral City and Merry Maids 4-H Club of Salineville, each $10.

Eugene Finnicum and Friendship Sewing Club of Malvern, each $5. Mrs. Harry McLaughlin Sr. and Mrs. Rae Croskey, both of Carrollton, each $2.50, and Robert Toland, Carrollton, $2.

The county group is conducting a sale of various items in the former Howard Elliott store here this Friday and Saturday to raise more funds for the retarded children class.

More Gifts for Retarded Class

More contributions to the Carroll County Council for Retarded Children for maintenance of the class being conducted here have been reported.

According to Mrs. Franklin Fuss, president, the Carrollton Woman's Club has contributed an additional $240.30 from their milk fur piece project, which was awarded to Mrs. Dorothy Crabbs following the Halloween parade here Wednesday.

Mrs. Fuss states the local JWC previously contributed $200 and is providing funds for milk each day for the eight children in the class. Mrs. Charles Frey is president of the club.

Additional contributions, reported by Mrs. Harold Wynn, treasurer, include:

Carrollton Lions Club has pledged $50 a year, beginning this year. Dellroy Parent-Teachers Assn., $25.

Ella Mae Circle of Harlem Springs Methodist Church, $10; Friendly Neighbors Club, $10; Circle 3 of the WSCS and Wesleyan class of Carrollton Methodist Church, $10.

Milner Bible class in memory of the late Mrs. Milo Ray, $6. VFW Auxiliary, Carrollton, $5; Mr. and Mrs. Genn McCreery, $5. Allen Johnston. City Meat Market, $4.72. United Fund of Eljer employees of Salem, $3.04. Mrs.

Retarded Children Class Progressing

Mentally Retarded Week is being observed this week and Mrs. Franklin Fuss, president of the Carroll County Council for Retarded Children, reports the local retarded class has proven successful through the cooperation and contributions of area individuals and organizations.

The eight pupils in the class are progressing quite well, according to Mrs. Fuss and the teacher, Mrs. Esther Dennis. The public is invited to visit the classroom and view the progress being made.

Persons who have volunteered their services as class helpers each week are as follows: Monday, Mrs. Roscoe Worley; Tuesday, Mrs. Betty Anders and Mrs. Kate Hay; Wednesday, Mrs. Mary Hobson; Thursday, Mrs. Anders and Mrs. Hay, and Friday, Mrs. Blanche Reed.

Drivers who transport the pupils to and from class include R. Shaw, Mr. Worley, Mrs. Donald Haugh, Mrs. Joe Johnston, Mrs. Ed Manfull, Mrs. Fuss, Mrs. Mary Smith and R. Collins. Transportation is still needed for a girl living in the Queensboro area.

Recent contributions reported by Mrs. Harold Wynn, treasurer, include Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Women's Club, $18.50; Malvern Pythian Sisters, Malvern-Brown-Sandy Council No. 4 and Ira J. Palmer, each $10.

Members of the executive board of the council have expressed their thanks and appreciation to those who have contributed in any way toward the success of the class.